Overlooking ‘La Caleta’ beach, Gran Hotel Miramar is Malaga’s newest 5 star, luxury hotel. The hotel was first inaugurated in 1926 by King Alfonso XIII under the name ‘Príncipe de Asturias’. Its facilities were used as a field hospital during the Spanish Civil War, and at the war’s end was reopened as ‘Hotel Miramar’ until 1967, when it shut down. Twenty years later the building was transformed into Malaga’s Palace of Justice until 2007. In 2016 it reopened in its previous historical splendor as a hotel. Located near Malaga’s bullring, it is approximately a 1 kilometer stroll to the city’s main sites.
