

12th Annual Shiparrested conference – May 3 – 5 2015

Dubai, UAE

About the UAE

The United Arab Emirates has grown exponentially to become the center of trade and tourism in the Middle East. Its strategic location has been beneficial for its growth as it is in the reach of Asia, Africa and Europe. The capital is Abu Dhabi which is rapidly becoming a cultural center in the region as well.

About Dubai

Dubai is a modern city, however, it is heavily influenced by its Islamic roots. There are factors that need to be kept in mind while you visit Dubai, particularly with regards to dress code and behavior.

Alcohol: Though alcohol is available for consumptions, it is not permitted to drink in public or to be intoxicated. This is punishable by law.

Dress Code: Modesty is advocated. Having said that, swimwear can be worn at beaches or at the pool. However, it is not permitted to be worn in public, particularly conservative areas of the city.

Language: Arabic is the national language of the UAE. However, English is used on a daily basis, as the expat community is large.

Must Sees in Dubai

Dubai is a very upbeat city and there is always something new to do here. However, a trip to Dubai is never complete without visiting places such as Dubai Mall, The Palm Islands, Burj Al Arab, Dubai Museum, Atlantis the Palm, Mall of the Emirates, Jumeirah Mosque and Desert Safari. Though this small list does not do justice to what this city has to offer but it does give a taste of what this Middle Eastern hub is all about.

Roberto's Restaurant

Nestled between two of the city's landmarks, Jumeirah Emirates Towers and the Burj Khalifa, Roberto's has positioned itself in the Gate Village, the social and cultural heart of the Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC). Alongside world-renowned art galleries and restaurants, Roberto's introduces Italian finesse to this lifestyle destination.

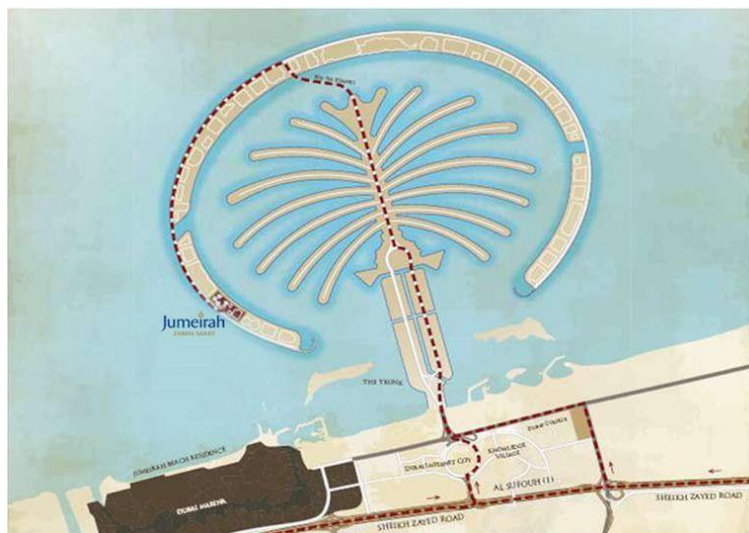

Cultural Lunch and Mosque Tour

This event will be organized by The Sheikh Mohammed Centre for Cultural Understanding. It is a non-profit organization to increase awareness established and understanding between the various cultures that live in Dubai. Operating under the banner "Open Doors. Open Minds." the SMCCU strives to remove barriers between people of different nationalities and raise awareness of the local culture, customs and religion of the United Arab Emirates. Al Nafoorah Restaurant, Jumeirah Zabeel Saray Hotel

Al Nafoorah is quickly earning a reputation as one of the very best Lebanese restaurants in Dubai. The high ceilings and dark wood carvings create a distinctly regal feel as you enter, yet the atmosphere is warm and relaxed. Whether you're indoors, accompanied by gentle live Arabic music, or on the terrace, overlooking the world-famous Palm Jumeirah, you'll find our serving staff exceptionally friendly and attentive.

We hope you have a pleasant stay in Dubai!
