Is delighted to announce the launch of a first of a kind mobile application for the maritime industry - an updated version of our highly successful platform www.shiparrested.com!

An international maritime lawyers' network ShipArrested.com has launched a global and interactive guide to arresting or releasing a ship worldwide, available via a downloadable application (app) for use on all the versions of iPhones.

The ShipArrested App guides into all the options to secure a claim or interest by a well-informed system aiming at facilitating the steps to any ship arrest / ship release worldwide. It is about making sure that the maritime community has access to the information in order to assist their decision-making.

The ShipArrested application and software developed by the IT Team gives the maritime community the ability to get instant access to a maritime lawyer via email and over the phone. A fast searching capability by country or port selection gives immediate contact with the members of the association in 86 countries on the five continents. Our international reach is what distinguishes us.

The App also provides answers the commonly asked questions on arrest procedures in more than 60 countries, from the international conventions applying in the countries and alternatives ways to arrest to wrongful arrest, corporate veil, sale pendente lite and much more.

You may remember the original publications. They were yearly hard copy and ebooks summaries of key legal issues to arrest a ship. These "Ship Arrests in Practice" guides (reflecting worldwide laws) were designed so that one would understand at a glance the way the maritime rules are interpreted in each country.

The App assists furthermore with its "Wanted Ships" service and extras on our conferences, publications… The idea is to streamline the search process and advise.

Valentine de Callatay, manager of the shiparrested. com network, comments:

"It is all about service and we feel this application gives the shipping industry the transparency they are looking for - this being one of the essentials values of our network.

The maritime world is operating across multiple jurisdictions and geographical boundaries. Launching this App, we hope that you will be able to resolve what are, in our experience, the most commonly asked queries.

"As a lawyers' network, we are continually looking at how we can open doors to efficiently arrest or release ships around the globe and, in launching this App, we anticipate that we will save businesses both time and money."

How to download the ShipArrested App?

The tool can be accessed from anywhere around the globe by both members of the network and members of the public alike.

You can download the ShipArrested App from the Apple's app store - download via iTunes or just search 'ship arrest' in the App Store.

Tip: If you had downloaded the first test version of the ShipArrested App, uninstall and reinstall it to make sure you have the tool working correctly.

Androids: Shiparrested will continue his innovative trend and will soon offer the app for the Android platforms. The App is called to be a must-have for the maritime community with devices working seamlessly on phones and tablets.
